DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by JP 11,259,393 to Takushi et al. ("Takushi"). Takushi teaches a network client/server communication system that allows at least two remote parties communicate (Abstract). An identifiable icon or a picture of each user, displayed on the opposite user's desktop, identifies the parties to one another (Abstract). The users are also notified of each other service utilization and can request information on the other system user (Abstract). The system also shows more detailed information regarding a users system utilization, personal information, and up-to-date status (Fig. 7).

Citation of Pertinent Prior Art

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

US Patent No. 6,449,344 to Goldfinger et al. teaches well known user to user communication techniques over computer networks.

Art Unit: 3713
